Important notes

Potential consequences of a surrender

The costs involved in establishing a life assurance policy are generally passed on to you (the policyholder) by way of charges payable upon taking out a policy or surrendering it. For this reason you should remember that such policies should be regarded as medium to long-term investments.

In some cases your policy may be subject to an early surrender fee. It is important that you understand that surrendering your existing policy in favour of a new policy with another life company will, in many cases, result in the payment of further charges to establish the new policy. As a policyholder you should carefully consider the impact of surrendering one policy in favour of another, and consult your financial adviser if you are thinking about doing so.

Suspended and/or illiquid funds

Where your policy holds illiquid and/or suspended assets, we may not be able to surrender your policy in full. In such circumstance where you wish to take a maximum withdrawal, please cancel your surrender request and submit a withdrawal form. You can submit a further surrender request once the assets have become liquid and/or the suspension has been lifted. If you are an individual or trustee resident in the UK, this may trigger a tax liability. For further information, please contact your financial adviser.

General

Depending on your policy and the investments that it is linked to, we may not be able to pay out surrender proceeds immediately. Some investment managers may have terms and conditions that prevent us from realising a cash value and this could delay payment.

Where applicable, please ensure that the authorised signatory list(s) that we hold for this policy are up-to-date before submitting surrender instructions. Where authorised signatories have changed and we are unable to match those on this form with our records, this will delay the surrender. We may also require further information for the purposes of Anti-Money Laundering.

U.S. Specified Person means a U.S. citizen or tax resident individual, who either holds a U.S. Passport, a U.S. Green Card, has a U.S. residential/correspondence address or who was born in the U.S. and has not yet renounced their U.S. citizenship. More information on U.S. FATCA can be found at www.irs.gov/Businesses/Corporations/Foreign-Account-Tax-Compliance-Act-FATCA.
