THE BENEFICIARY TRUST NOMINATION

This trust deed allows owner(s) of an RL360 plan to nominate trustee(s) to receive all plan benefits following the death of the last surviving relevant person. The Trustees will hold all plan benefits on trust for the plan owners' designated beneficiaries.

IMPORTANT NOTES

General
This trust deed is provided as a draft to be considered by you and your professional advisers.

RL360 Insurance Company Limited accepts no responsibility for any tax or other consequences arising out of you executing this trust deed, or for ensuring that the terms of this trust deed meet with your requirements.

This trust deed invalidates all previous beneficiary nominations linked to your plan, therefore it is important that it includes details of all the persons whom you wish to benefit.

The plan owner(s) and the Trustee(s) must sign this trust deed at Part D.

If you cannot enter the details asked for in the space available, please make a note on the trust deed and attach a separate document containing those details.

You should not use this trust deed if you wish to create a gift for UK Inheritance Tax purposes.

Inheritance laws and beneficiary designation
Many countries have laws governing the distribution of a person's estate on their death. There is a risk that the transfer into trust or nomination of the Trustee as owner of the plan is not recognised by a jurisdiction and could be challenged. The basis for such a challenge would be that the rights of heirs may be placed above individual rights to pass on assets on trust to other parties.

The Relevant Person
The Relevant Person is the plan owner, or where there are joint plan owners, the last surviving plan owner. Where there are joint plan owners, the terms of this trust deed will have no effect unless both are deceased.

The Relevant Event
This is the date on which the last surviving Relevant Person dies and when the Beneficiary Trust Nomination is effective. Upon written notification of the death of the Relevant Person, the plan benefits are payable to the Trustee for the benefit of the beneficiaries in accordance with the provisions in Part C of this trust deed.

Trustee
The Trustee(s) are nominated at Part A(ii) of this trust deed to act after your death and give instructions concerning the plan, or any benefits arising from it.

Trust Fund
The Trust Fund is the plan specified in Part A(i) of this trust deed.

Changing Beneficiaries
The plan owner(s) must complete a new Beneficiary Trust Nomination if beneficiaries are to be changed.

Assignments
If you assign any part of the plan specified in this trust deed as security or collateral to a financial body (such as a bank), that assignment will take priority over a beneficiaries' claim to any benefits designated in this trust deed whilst the assignment remains in force. Absolute assignments of all or part of the plan to another party will render this trust deed null and void.

Benefits where no beneficiary survives
If no beneficiaries are alive at such time as any benefits become payable, all benefits will pass to the estate of the plan owner or where there are joint plan owners, to the estate of the last surviving plan owner.

Automatic Exchange of Information
Under Tax Regulations and intergovernmental agreements entered into by the Isle of Man in relation to the automatic exchange of information for tax matters (collectively "AEOI"), RL360 Insurance Company Limited is required to collect information about each Trustee, and Named Beneficiary once the trust is created. (Where any of the Named Beneficiaries are minors, this will be required once they reach 18 years old.)

PART C

Trust Provisions

1. The trustees for the time being of these trusts shall have the following powers:

(i) to make any kind of investment that they could make if they were absolutely entitled to the Trust Fund

(ii) to apply the whole or such part of the income and capital of the Trust Fund as the trustees in their absolute discretion shall think fit to or for the benefit of any beneficiary whose interest shall not have vested for or towards the maintenance, education advancement or benefit of such beneficiary and the trustees may exercise such powers whether or not there is any other fund or income available for any such purposes or whether or not there is any person bound by law to provide such maintenance or education

(iii) to accept as a good and sufficient discharge the receipt given by any such beneficiary who shall have attained the age of 18 years or any parent or guardian of any minor beneficiary in respect of the payment of capital or income paid or applied for the benefit of such beneficiary on the trustees first obtaining an undertaking from such parent or guardian so to apply such capital or income

(iv) during the minority of any beneficiary under these trusts to accumulate any surplus income held on trust for such beneficiary and invest the same in accordance with paragraph (i) above and any such accumulation shall be added to the fund or share from which it was derived and shall devolve with such fund or share but the trustees may at any time apply any or all of such accumulations for any of the purposes permitted by these trusts as if it were income arising in the then current year

2. Any trustee of these trusts who is engaged in any profession or business shall be entitled to charge and be paid all professional or business charges for business done by him or his firm in connection with these trusts including business which a trustee not being engaged in such profession or business could have done personally.

3. Any corporate trustee may be appointed as trustee of these trusts and the general terms and conditions upon which it acts as a trustee last published before the date of this designation form shall apply to these trusts and it shall be entitled to retain remuneration in accordance with the scale and other fees usually charged at that date for its services in acting as a trustee of these trusts with power to retain and be paid remuneration in accordance with the scale and other fees published by it from time to time for such services.

4. No trustee of these trusts shall be liable for any loss arising by reason of any investment made in good faith or for the default, negligence or fraud of any agent employed by him or by any other trustee whether or not the employment of such agent was strictly necessary or expedient or by reason of any mistake or omission made in good faith by any trustee or by reason of any other matter or thing except wilful fraud or intentional wrongdoing on the part of the trustee who is sought to be made liable.

5. The perpetuity period applicable to these trusts shall be the period from the date of the designation form until the expiration of 21 years from the date of the Relevant Event.

6. This Trust Deed shall be governed by and construed according to the laws of the Isle of Man.
